I don't have a problem with this, although the phrase "by any stretch" does not seem necessary to me. But if its important to you I can live with it.

Mr. O'Neil,

During our tele conference today, you indicated that Woods Cove was a "peripheral point" which "was not a leading factor by any stretch" with respect to Mr. Yoder's separation from employment.

We would like you to consider a written stipulation reflecting this same language: "The loss of legal work from Woods Cove was a peripheral point, and not a leading factor by any stretch, with respect to my decision to request Mr. Yoder to resign from his job."
